

Part-IIQNo#02: Precs

The Deception of Green Energy

Green Revolution: The Hidden Truth

Overall understanding the idea is ok
Title needs improvement.
Work on Sentence Structure and Grammar

Sentence Structure

The author said renewable energy has been considered as virtue of humanity and moral salvation. Politicians and environmental activist made promises for saving the planet, Ironically Green Revolution leading to environmental degradation. Solar panels, wind turbines and electric vehicles emit their ^{high} costs and consume rare earth metals cobalt and lithium even in world poorest region. The writer ironically said one environmental is become depressed by fueling others. Electric vehicles batteries emit more carbon than combustion engine, their electric waste became catastrophe that become cycle of extraction, pollution and wasteland and solar farms have deceptive slogan of zero emission. In reality Turbine blades composites cannot be recycled. The author says its technological hypocrisy and moral decline showing humanity obsession with green. He demands no industrial revolution disguised as virtue despite it is wounded the planet in different ways in the name of renewable energy.

Precis should be one 3rd of original passage
Your passage reflect the original idea
Don't take direct sentences from the passage
It is not the narration of precis
Title should be self-defining and self-explanatory to the passage
Always write in third person

Q No#03: Read the passage and

08/20

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer

Please enhance length of each answer

Read the passage carefully

Ans 01: Dexter's Rivals advice:

Dexter's rivals advised him to ship coal to Newcastle because Newcastle was a city famous for its endless supply of coal. His rivals were tired of his success so they wanted to see him humiliated by losing everything.

Ans 02: Unexpected event in England:

When Dexter's ship reached England, there was shortage of coal because of miners' strike. Dexter sold his entire cargo and got massive profit. Left his rivals speechless. The unexpected event of miners' strike turned Dexter's foolish coal venture into a profitable success.

Ans 03: Relationship between Luck and Intelligence:

The author implies that sometimes being underestimated is the best advantage a man can have. Dexter besides of his bizzare decisions and fooled by the rivals become the greatest successful businessman highlighting the role of luck in his achievements.

Ans: 04: Conventional ideas about business wisdom and education:

Dexter's little formal education and unconventional ~~bizna~~ bizare decisions turned into his success challenging the conventional ideas. It shows the unconventional ideas and luck can lead to success.

Ans: 05: Human perception of foolishness and genius.

The perception of foolishness and genius can be misleading. Dexter seems foolish and ~~uneducated~~ genius due to turning his bizare decisions into success by luck. His rivals underestimating him, left speechless by his great success.

04: Q. Not correct five of the following sentences.

(i) We accepted their offer on the grounds that something is better than nothing.

(ii) Use half bowl of water to one capful.

(iv) An inning is one of the divisions of a match during which one team takes its turns to bat.

(vi) Neither of the two applicants had suitable qualification.

(viii) Ahsan does not want to study, nor he want a job.

Q5(A) Qn# Punctuate the following Passage.

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "they called this justice", yet I never been heard. The guard replied softly, orders are orders, sir; freedom is not decided here. A Journalist who outside shouted, "The minister claimed no one is above the law, but who decides what law means when truth is behind bars?" The prisoner cell fell silent. The prisoner smiled faintly and whispered, "They can cage a man, but not his conviction".

Q5(B) Rewrite the following sentences. 01/05

(iv) We saw a movie at the theatre.

(v) I rowed the boat ^{across} in the lake.

(vi) You can go ^{after} if you done your homework.

(vii) We all sat ^{around} at the dinner table.

(viii) I pushed ^{through} by the crowd.

(ix) She died of starvation.

Qn# Q6: Idioms

(i) A fish out of water

I felt like a fish out of party water at the yesterday party.

(ii) Go to wall: The small business had go to wall due to financial reasons.

Day: _____

Date: _____

(v) Live wire: She is live fire, full of energy. ✓

(vi) On pins and needles: I was^{on} pins and needles waiting for the exam result. ✓

Q No #07: Translate into English.

If Urdu's professor claims that he knows Ghalib's poetry very well and can memorize the listeners by discussing its artistic creativity, no doubt he is highlighting his literature comprehension, but if is asked request him to say a single stanza like Ghalib he will become speechless. Because ^(comprehension) knowledge and creativity are two different sides of the coin. Comprehension is the production of mind, on the other side creativity is divine and intuition. Ghalib received exceptional level not only because of pundring and consistency but also by extraordinary intelligence, feelings and by God gifted charisma too. ✓ It's the reason even after centuries which still feel close to heart same like in Ghalib's era

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word