The Deception of Green Energy

Renewable energy a myth.

04/20

The public views renewable energy as source colonization. By shifting from fossil-fuelled energy. Prioritizing of heavy terminology by environmental beholders is ironical.

Yet this fake view is vague because the green revolution is also harming the planet.

The discourse of green energy is costly. They required rare minerals as cobalt and lithium found in poorest regions and expensive to extract.

In Congo, Chile and China land has been stripped of vegetation due to chemicals and land grab. The environmental crisis are intensified.

So called ecological electric vehicles promoted, emits more carbon in manufacturing batteries.

In addition, despite of progress the waste of batteries is polluted and hazardous.

On the other hand operationally clean wind and solar also pose toxic waste and to maintain and make them it requires fossil fuels.

"Zero emission" is ironical slogan.

It is not technology but human moral compliance can heal the planet environment-ally,

Ans

Timothy Dexter's rivals advised him to ship coal to Newcastle, as the city was already famous for its endless supply of coal, his rival wants to defy him and to humiliate, because they were tired of his success. But the outcome was different as Dexter's ship was sold at a huge profit due to shortage of coal lead by the miners' strike.

Write in single passage

Therefore, the ship which Timothy Dexter sent to Newcastle did not lose any thing in fact it gave a huge amount of profit due to fortune. On the hand rivals became surprised.

2

Ans:

Dexter's apparently foolish coal venture which later on turned into a profitable success was because of an ~~event~~ unexpected event occurred in England.

The event was a miner's strike which had stopped local production, however, that strike created a sudden shortage of coal and due to this shortage Dexter's ship profited him and the foolish coal venture turned into a profitable success. A joke became one of his greatest victories.

Ans.

The author imply that being underestimated is the best advantage a man can have. Further more, the confidence is the main reason where the luck and intelligence works. Dexter was little educated people called him fool and and a genius as well but his confidence comply the luck and intelligence and earned him success.

4.

Ans.

The conventional ideas, business wisdom and education ~~are~~ were broken by Dexter as his repeated success, he constantly made ③ bizarre decisions that somehow turned into fortune, despite of little education, being labelled as fool his continuous efforts ~~deci~~ and decisions making him successful which is relevant by ~~the~~ two of his mentioned events one of coal and other of bed warmth.

Ans. The human perception of "foolishness" and "genius" are apparently mis perception the luck and fortune can change that perception. As sometimes most genius and Intelligent Person can fail what a fool can pass. And vice versa. It is also evident from the Dexter's decision making.

Therefore what human's perception is about fool & genius can not be always true and can not be always wrong.
