If any professor under claim that he understands poetry of Ghalib and can explain his poetry, he is, doubtlessly, challenging his intellect. However, if he is asked to produce one line like poetry like poetry of Ghalib, he would become helpless, because understanding and creativity are two different things. Wisdom is outcome of understanding, but creativity is originated from natural capability. States that Ghalib has achieved is not merely an outcome of studying or hard work, but it is the result of unusual intelligence, feelings and is gift of God. This is the reason that even after centuries his poetry has same effect on heart as it had during his period.
