

Question no: 4

- (i) We accepted their offer on the grounds that something is better than nothing.
- (ii) The bag was so heavy I could hardly lift it.
- (iii) She advised me to never point my fingers at anyone.
- (iv) An innings is one of the divisions of match.
- (v) Alisan doesn't want to study nor does he want a to work.

Question no: 5 - A

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "They call this justice yet I have never been heard." The guard replied softly, "Orders are orders, sir. Freedom isn't decided here." A journalist outside shouted, "The minister claimed no one is above the law but who decides what law means when truth is behind bars?" The cell fell silent, the prisoner smiled faintly and whispered, "They can cage a man, but not his conviction."

(B)

plz write complete sentences

- (i) ~~(iv) at the theatre~~
- (ii) ~~(vii) at the dinner~~
- (iii) ~~(viii) through the crowd~~
Look to the left

Question no: 6

- (i) I felt like a fish out of water among other CSS candidates.
- (ii) Even if you don't like it, the devil will come for his due because of your corrupt decision.
- (v) CSS essay exam is a live wire compared to the rest of the exams.
- (vi) I made through this boring lecture on pins and needles.
- (viii) To put back the clock I reminded my parents of when they were my age.

Question no: 7

If an Urdu Professor claims that he fully understands Ghalib and is able to create an essence out of his analysis on ~~Ghalib's~~ artistic expression, then indeed he is showing his intellectual capabilities, but it should be demanded of him that he produces a verse like Ghalib, then he would become helpless because attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner please. Knowledge and creativity are two different worlds. Knowledge creates ~~is not~~ reason while creativity is the result of knowing. The status Ghalib has been blessed with, is not achieved through mere reading or hardwork rather its a display of an extraordinary intellect, realizations and Allah's.

guidance. That is the reason that even after centuries his ~~verses~~ have the same impact on hearts like they did during his time.

Question no. 3

Timothy Dexter's ~~rivals~~ advised him to ship coal to Newcastle because they were tired of his success. He constantly made bizarre business decisions that somehow turned into fortune. They intended to humiliate him through their suggestion as Newcastle is famous for having endless supply of coal.

When Dexter's ship reached England, unexpectedly there was a ~~miner~~ strike which had stopped local production. This caused a shortage and Dexter was able to sell his entire cargo for a massive profit.

The ~~author~~ ~~imply~~ implies that one does not have to be intelligent or smart to be ~~un~~successful. Sometimes with little formal education but ~~a~~ lot of confidence and luck, a person can become successful. Moreover, he also suggests that if you are underestimated by people that can serve as a competitive advantage.

Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery

good well connected

into success challenge conventional ideas in education, business and wisdom. It shows that you can succeed without worrying about the ~~need~~ 'supply and demand' model of business. It reveals that you can follow any random advice and if you are lucky it'll be in your favour, which is against wisdom as wisdom dictates one to search for truth. In terms of education, it shows you do not need to have a better education or any education to be lucky, education may help you in making a 'educated guess' but ~~all~~ this all is helpless in front of the favour of luck.

5. Human's perceive a person to be 'foolish' if he does as he's told, especially if he has little formal education. And, if he is successful in his venture he is labelled as a 'genius'. Dexter's rivals responses to his achievements shows how they considered him lesser than them because of his humble academic upbringing and simplicity to follow the advise/suggestion of his ~~friend~~ peers.

Question 2:

The public believes renewable energy will wipe the slate clean of ~~all~~ the damage we have done ~~to~~ to the environment. However, it is only causing harm. The utilization of green technologies ~~hides~~ conveniently hides their true cost of requiring rare earth minerals that are provided through vigorous mining techniques. These often leave lands unviable, poisoned and uninhabitable. One environmental problem ~~is~~ can not be fixed while creating another. Electric vehicles ruin the planet due to their extraction, pollution and waste during recycling. While solar and wind farms cause damage as waste. To achieve true sustainability it needs to have restraint, efficient and systemic humbleness rather than entirely relying on green technology.

Title:

write such title which explain the whole passage

~~Environment: Out of the frying pan into the fire~~