If an Urdu professor claims that he can comprehend the poetry of Ghalib quite well and can impress others by having deep conversations about it, then he indeed is intelligent.

But, if asked to say atleast one verse of poetry like that of Ghalib, he would be unable to do that. Because comprehension and creativity are two different elements. Creativity is only God gifted, while intellectual skills can be developed. Ghalib could get to become a famous poet due to the faculties that were God gifted.

which is why his poetry is as impactful as it used to be back in the days.
