

Name Taryab ur Rehman Farooqi

Batch 212 Rehmanabad.

35/80

PART II

Question II

Title

The Deception of Green Energy

Renewable Energy:
Devil in Disguise

06/20

Politicians, corporate, and environmental activist have introduced new brands of carbon neutrality and net zero.

As the "green label" looks more appealing; so, people find it a moral salvation of the past. However,

such a green revolution of so-called renewable energy is harming the planet in another way. ~~For example,~~ the production of e-vehicles' batteries emit more carbon than conventional engines combustion. Similarly, the blades of wind turbines and the solar panel

create electric wastes, thereby

igniting another ecological crisis

while mitigating ^{the} one. Additionally,

the extraction of mining reduces vegetation by poisoning the vast tract ~~through chemical run off,~~

as observed in ^{Poor regions} Congo, Chile, and China. Hence, while creating a sustainable environment,

it is harming the environment and enterpre-

Overall understanding the idea is ok

Title needs improvement.

Grammar is ok

Write clear and short sentences

Avoid complicated sentences

Follow the order of précis original passage

-news exploit the nature by ~~ex~~ extracting rare-earth minerals so as to conceal their relentless intentions ~~and~~ behind the banner of progress and "zero-emission". In short, sustainability can only be achieved through restraints, efficiency and systematic humility.

Question No 3

In comprehension answer each question comprehensively
Do not be irrelevant in your answer
Please enhance length of each answer
Read the passage carefully

10/20

Ans. Timothy Dexter's rivals were exhausted by his successes, so, they decided to make him fool; as a result ^{he} would face a business set back. They advised him to take cargo to Newcastle. As Newcastle was rich in coal, they thought Dexter would return with huge loss. However, he earned huge profit after selling his cargo in Newcastle.

Question No 2

Ans. When Dexter reached England, England local miners had stopped production due to strike. Hence, against the hopes of his rival, Strikes created sudden shortage. As a result, the Dexter's cargo proved a blessing for the people of Newcastle.

Question No 3

Ans The author made an interesting relationship between luck and ~~its~~ and intelligence. The writer explains that it's not always luck that bring success but also the intelligence to stay aware of the surroundings also play pivotal role. Therefore, sometimes, an underestimated matter with skills can be advantageous.

Question No 4

Ans Dexter turned the mockery of his profit and business into innovative ideas full of wisdom and education. He taught how negative energies can be translated into pragmatic initiatives. Hence, he challenge the conventional ideas of not selling coal in Newcastle by taking timely decision.

Question No 5

Ans. Dexter's pragmatic initiatives and use of his intelligence proved that "a book should ~~not~~ be judged by its cover." Hence, what was his appearance deceived his rivals. As a result, he reaped more benefits from the mockery of his rivals by improving his business.

Question No 4

Correct any five sentences.

02/10

iii The bag was so heavy that I could hardly lift.

vi ~~Neither~~ of the two applicants had suitable qualification.

vii Ahsan doesn't want to study and job.

iv She advised me ~~never to~~ to point ~~the~~ finger to anyone.

(i) We accepted their offer on the grounds that something was better than nothing.

Question No.5

A Punctuate the following.

03/05

The prisoner looked through the narrow window and said, "They call this justice." "Yet, I have never heard," the guard replied softly, "Orders are orders, sir. Freedom isn't decided here." A journalist outside shouted, "The minister claimed that no one is above the law, but who decides what law means when truth is behind bars?" The cell fell silent. The prisoner smiled faintly and whispered, "They can cage a man, not his conviction."

B Filling the blanks

01/05

- ① Tehmina applied ^{at} to a bank for a loan.
- ② She died ^{from} of starvation.
- ③ We all sat ^{around} on the dinner table.
- ④ Look ^{to} the left and you will see your destination.

We saw a movie ^{at} inside the theatre.

Question No. 6

Use Five in Sentences.

8/10

① Laconic Speech:

Quaid-e-Azam delivered a laconic speech with enriched instructions for the nation on 11 Aug. 1947.

2 : A fish out of water

Exam days keep students energetic but like a fish out of water because they ~~were~~ are not habitual to such difficulty.

③ Live wire

Opposing political parties' workers become live wires to each other on talk shows and some-times, even beat each other.

④ To give devil his due

During sectional rivalry in the United States, the north gave the devil south their due by eliminating several pro-slavery leaders.

On pins and needles.

The manager of the company warned employees of the violation of discipline since then, everyone sits on the pins and needles.

Translation into English

Attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner
Focus on grammar please
Do not attempt word by word

05/10

If an Urdu Professor claims that he understands the poetry of Ghalib well, and shed light on his contribution to literature, indeed, he is showing his vast knowledge; however, if he is asked to recite verses as similar as Ghalib, he will be unable to do so. Because creativity and understanding are two different realms. Logic produces comprehension while creativity results from inner intuition. Ghalib's accomplishment was not merely due to study or hardworking, instead, it was God-gifted, extraordinary, and symbol of realization. This is the reason his poetry impacts hearts even after centuries as similar to his times even after centuries.