The Deception of Green Energy

"Quest for Sustainable Technology"

07/20

Overall understanding the idea is ok

Title needs improvement.

Grammar is ok.

In today's world, the concept of green energy has become a marketing strategy. People and organizations term green and renewable resources as the only remedy to the carbon fuels. But the so-called healthy technology comes at a very high price of environmental degradation. Mining is done to extract ~~(prestig)~~ precious elements that are used in these technologies. It threatens ecological balance by polluting and making it unsuitable for living. Electric vehicles, solar panels and wind turbines are regarded as symbols of green revolution, but they are still dependent on conventional resources for proper functioning. Here, one problem is solved by creating one. In short, it is another way of exploiting the Earth in the clothes of clean technology. (116).
