Q3, ① Timothy Dexter's rivals advise him to ship coal to Newcastle because that city is famous for its ~~coordinated~~ supply of coal. The intended outcome was that ~~he~~ would lose everything because that city ~~doesn't~~ doesn't need his coal. He will become a joke.

Q5, ④

②

When his ship reached Newcastle, there started a sudden shortage of coal because of strike that halted the local production. He sold his entire cargo for a massive profit.

③ || LOOK TO

③ The author implies that Timothy Dexter's success relied more on luck than conventional intelligence, yet his confidence and willingness to act boldly allowed him to ~~capitalise~~ capitalize on unexpected opportunities while his business decisions seemed foolish or irrational.

④ Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenges conventional ideas of about business wisdom and education as business success doesn't depend on formal education, planning or expert judgement. Sometimes intuition, risk-taking, and unconventional thinking can outperform traditional business wisdom.

⑤ It can be inferred that human perception of foolishness and genius is often shaped by outcomes rather than logic. Dexter's rivals saw him as a fool because of his ideas and when those some ideas led to success, they called him a genius.

fully understand and appreciate Ghalib's poetry,

he is surely showing intellect and learning,

but if he is asked to speak a verse

like Ghalib, he will find himself powerless.

Because intellect and intuition are two different world. Intellect is product of reason while ~~intuition~~ is intuition is the outcome of spiritual insight.

The fame that Ghalib got was not because of his hardwork but was a reflection of divine inspiration. This is the only reason that after so many centuries, his verses continue to stir ~~on~~ hearts as powerful as they did in his own time.
