

Title: Green Technology. Seductive But Deceptive.

appropriate and self defining title

The elites have manipulated the public opinion, about green energy, as the greatest guarantee of planetary healing. 8
In reality, clean technology has hidden costs as it demands a large quantity of rare minerals, Lithium and Cobalt, that are obtained by energy intensive and ecologically ruinous mining.
The extraction is often done in the world's poorest countries that have been rendered uninhabitable. Electric vehicles use large batteries that non-recyclable batteries that emit more carbon than combustion engines. Solar and wind farms are operationally clean but their assembly, transport and grid support requires fossil fuel combustion which makes it seductive but deceptive. The tragedy is that it has triggered another wave of industrial exploitation disguised as a virtue rather than efficient use of resources - wounding the planet in a different manner.

IF a professor of Urdu claims that he understands the work of Ghalib well and can gain attention by shedding light on his ^{talented} creative work, then there is no doubt that he is portraying his knowledge. But if he is asked to create even one prose like Ghalib, he will become helpless.

Because understanding something and inventing it are from two different do not attempt word by word translation worlds. Intelligence comes from wisdom and but, invention is the result of spirituality. The ~~status~~ attained by Ghalib, is not achieved through extensive learning and hardwork. But it is gained because of special intelligence sensitivity and divine faculties. This is why, even after centuries, his poetry touches the hearts of people like it did at his time.

plz explain more keeping in view Timothy Dexter's rivals advised him the context of the passage please to ship the coal to Newcastle to humiliate him. They expected an outcome that he would lose everything.

When Dexter's ship reached England, a miner's protest was taking place that had stopped local production.
Dexter sold his entire cargo and turned his apparently foolish coal venture into a profitable success.

(3)

When luck is on a person's side and

As luck stood by Dexter's side he gambled intelligently and earned profit. Luck alone cannot work if one makes relentless decisions.

Dexter's repeated successes in turning mockery into profit challenged conventional ideas about business, wisdom and education by giving a living reminder that being underestimated is the best advantage a man can have.

(5)

Dexter's repeated success in turning mockery into profit challenged the conventional ideas about business wisdom and education but Dexter did not have any proper education and still his business was laden with success. He took bed warmers to California but people bought it for 'imclasses ladies. Luck is the driving force behind Timothy's business. When ~~luck~~ plays its part it can outweigh formal education and wisdom.

(5)

Foolishness and genius are subjected to terms and change when the circumstance changes. For example when Timothy's rivals sent him to England to sell coal, they expected a massive loss. But luck was on Timothy's side and the foolish coal venture turned into a spectacle of profit. Similarly when he sent bed warmers to the waters of Caribbean, his idea was subjected to failure but fate had other plans and turned it into success.

Hence humans perceive genius as the one who succeeds and foolish as a person who fails.
