The Essay.

Winston Churchill said

"The Price of Greatness is responsibility" which shows that if the head wants to wear the crown several responsibilities, various challenges and endless hurdles are waiting in the path to reach the destination for wearing a crown. Leadership apparently seems to be an easy task with luxurious life but in real it is not as comfortable and as cool as it seems to be. In actual the crown demands the hardships, surrendering of will for national interest. Most importantly wisdom and optimism at impossible situation and in hurdle of life play a key role in holding the crown on head. Persistent attitude without giving up on the dream and the ability to do righteous decision in various aspects of
