Q No-3

The formation of new provinces is a recurring discourse of Pakistan. Critically evaluate the hurdles and give recommendations.

Solution: Introduction

The question of creating new provinces in Pakistan has returned to the national interest. Over the years several political parties and social groups have raised demands for the reorganization of federal structure. Punjab into multiple provinces to creating administrative units in Hazara, South Punjab and Urban Sindh. Recent voices calling for 12 provinces. At stake is not only the administrative efficiency but its political stability and national unity.

Some persons argue that "smaller provinces" will bring governance closer to the people. It will provide the improvement of service delivery.

Make main heading from the question statement

Scenario Analysis

Historically, movements for new provinces arose out of long-standing grievances. For example

- i- Seraiki belt in South Punjab
- ii- Hazara division in KPK
- iii- Urban Sindh especially in Karachi

Need for new provinces

Supporters of new provinces cite several provinces

i- Governance Efficiency

Large province like Punjab and Balochistan cover vast areas. Citizens in far-flung areas have to travel several kilometers to reach at provincial capitals for basic needs. Small provinces can be better for their responsiveness and service delivery.

ii- Equitable political representation.

Almost 56% population in National Assembly for federal decision makers belong to Punjab which is iii - Regional and Ethnic understanding

Sindh and Punjab is considered as the champion of politics to counter its multiple movements for creating provinces are active Ethnicity is also another challenge. Pakistan is multi lingual country internal collaboration will be decreased by separating its parts.

Hurdles in formation of provinces

i - Economic Hurdle

Pakistan is developing country, recent of 2025 is the main influence of crops, dairy, and lives. Under these circumstances establishment of new assemblies, high Courts and ministries require billion of rupees in annual expenditure. our country is already struggling with fiscal deficit.

ii. Political Hurdle

Constitutionally, creation of provinces require $\frac{2}{3}$ rd or two third majority of the concerned province and both houses of parliament. Consensus is difficult under these circumstances.

iii - Administrative Disruptions

Recomendations

i. Empower local government

Article 140-A to give the local government fiscal and administrative autonomy could achieve the same goals at low level.

ii. Adopting metropolitan models

major cities like Karachi, Lahore, Peshawar and Quetta, could be granted metropolitan powers.

iii - Administrative Reforms

Streamlining Bureaucracy, digitising services and introduce performance based service structure.

iv - Fiscal Decentralization

Provincial finance commissions have to allocate 30-40% of provincial revenue is allocated to backward regions for their improvement.

v - Stakeholder Dialogue

Initiate inclusive debate involving parliaments, civil society, academia and local community to ensure legitimacy.

vi - Avoid Hasty Reforms

prioritize economic recovery and stability first; pursue structural reforms.

Conclusion

The creation of new provinces in Pakistan has genuine concern over governance, equity and representation. International experiences show that success requires careful planning, consensus building, and strong institutions. For Pakistan more practical and effective model is Empowering local governments, ensuring fiscal decentralisation, and experimenting with metropolitan governance. New provinces should be a long term possibility but not an immediate priority.

Q No-4

There is dangerous revival of militancy in KP and Balochistan. Critically evaluate the reasons and give recommendations.

Solution

Introduction

Militancy could be broadly divided into three dimensions

i- Sectarian Militancy

There are a series of sectarian and militant groups in Pakistan. Lashkar-e-Janghvi, Sipah-e-Sahaba are the Sunni militant groups. While Sipah-e-Muhammed and Fatimoon are Shia militant groups. These are responsible for sectarian killings.

DATE: _____

ii. Terrorist or Religious Militancy

TTP is top of the list. It has 37 small groups. It is present in North Waziristan, South Waziristan, Aitakzai, Khyber, Momand Agency and Mardan Division. Similarly, GSKP (Islamic State of Khorasan Province) Afghanistan and TTP are responsible of cross border killings.

iii. Separatist Militancy

The most important one in this case is BLA, Majeed Brigade. They both are suicide bomber specialists. These terrorist organizations have adopted guerrilla war strategy against Pakistan.

Militant Targets

Most attacks
of TTP and other groups
are against military, paramilitary forces, FC, police especially CCD, Religious places, Imam Bazaar, Judiciary and Shia Population.

Reasons of Targets

- 1- Afghanistan related factors
helped in the revival of TTP.

ii- They realised that Taliban prisoners more than 5000 are belong to TTP and other Pakistan based militant may come back to Pakistan.

iii- TTA and TTP are ideological brothers. They both claimed that they fought Jihad against US and NATO. Therefore TTA cannot stop TTP (Tehreek-e Taliban Pakistan) to attack on Pakistan.

iv- TTA (Tehreek-e-Taliban Afghanistan) fears that TTP may make alliance with ISK (Islamic State of Khorasan) which is the enemy of TTA.

iii - Lack of political autonomy.

The lack of political autonomy is the primary driver in ongoing insurgency.

iv - Sardari System

Balochi claims that if Sardars are problem then

Policy Recommendations

To resolve the insurgency and address the underlying causes of discontent, Pakistan must adopt a multi-faceted approach that includes political, economic and societal reforms.

1- Intelligence Based Military operations

There is no need to have huge operations. IBO's are preferred for minimum killings of lives.

ii. Educational and Social Reforms

Educational reforms are essential for peace in KPK. Most of the Madaris are not registered. Similarly literacy poverty of Pakistan is 77%. By investing more on education in Balochistan and KPK regions the could be brought in peace net.

iii - Political and Autonomy Reforms

Grant Balochistan more control over resources. Similarly people of KPK should be involved in politics and make sure the reforms could never be against the consent of public interest and autonomy.

DATE: _____

iv- Dialogue and peace process

Non state actors should be involved to convince TTP, BLA and other terrorist organizations to surrender in the favour of state.

v- Address External influence

The government should decrease the external influence by diplomatic ways. In Afghanistan and India both the countries have to control their involvement in cross border affairs of other countries.

Conclusion

The insurgencies in Balochistan and KPK are from the time of independence but a- Content 60% References 15% Subject specific language 15%. Graphs and charts 10%

Add 12-13 headings in each question and write 8-9 sides to get above 15 in each question the questions carry 3_4 parts, each part has equal weightage so discuss all equally

Give examples from present events to justify answers

Give attractive introduction and Conclusion as well always give headings from the question statement.. take words from the statement

link each of the argument to the asked part in the question... if you fail to do so, no matter how accurate content is, if your heading is not align with what is asked in the question, it won't be accurate
