If an Urdu professor claims to understand Ghalib's discourse and can make a fruitful debate on his literary excellence then undoubtedly he is reflecting his educational expertise. But if he is to ask ~~to~~ compose a verse like him he will surely be unable to do so. Because creation and intellect are poles apart. Intellect is related to wisdom and creation is a divinely attribute. The height of grandeur that Ghalib had ^{been bestowed} cannot be achieved merely with hard work or education but it comes from extraordinary intellect, empathy and ~~a~~ Godly blessing. Due to this reason that even after centuries his verses have same immensely
