If any Urdu professor claims to understand the Poetry of Ghalib well and that he can make long discussions on the art of him, so surely he is showing off his own educational skills, but if he is asked to say a verse like Ghalib, then he will become helpless. Because intelligence and creativity are two different ^{realms} worlds. Intelligence is the birth of minds while creativity is the result of virtue and intuition. The rank Ghalib got was not through reading or hardwork but was by the exceptional intelligence, care and was the reflection of the gift of God. This is the reason that even after centuries his poetry still impact the hearts like they used to in his times.

ANSWER #2

The Deception of Green Energy

05/20

The dark truth about renewable energy.
Public have perceived the renewable transition as the obligation to solve the heat issue caused by fossil fuels. The environmentalists market the renewable energy as a solution to the planet's increased temperature. Each renewable energy structure and production requires materials that are extracted from earth by extreme measures releasing heat and chemicals in the environment, ultimately affecting the earth negatively. The issue lies under the moral structure of the technological society.
