J.K Rowling says "Happiness can be found even in the darkest of times, only if one knows how to hold the light within". No matter how much turmoil our country is facing.

right now, our people will be able to make it proud globally. Recently, Pakistan ^{Airforce} ~~Army~~ has sent a clear message to the world that Pakistan is always prepared to fight. The other sectors of Pakistan also need a little effort in path of progress. It is not the people of Pakistan that are hurdle in success, but these is a little need of change in basic framework of sectors. If Japan can rise from nothing to everything, Pakistan needs some efforts just to change and stabilize its situation in globe. For this purpose, the policy makers, the spokesmen, the main working body should be selected on merit to work for and represent the country. Therefore, Pakistan needs right men for the right job in all sectors by creating fair opportunities for building its positive image globally.
