Title: Renewable Energy: 06/20

~~A Seductive But Deceptive Slogan~~

✓ People consider renewable energy as a sacred cure for fossil-fueled destruction. But practically, there is a rise of a different wave of industrial exploitation as one crisis is being handled by causing another. ✓ For example ecologically destructive mining practices are employed for rare earth minerals, needed for clean technology. Even land is being polluted with chemicals for sustainable materials. Production of electric vehicles batteries, with limited lifespan and recycling challenges, also emit huge carbon. ✓ Production and maintenance of wind and solar solar farms requires fossil fuel and they generate solid waste too. Because of
