

Part - 11

Q2:- Make precis of following and suggest suitable title?

Title:-

From influential to Influencer.

Precis:-

Civil services in Pakistan were once held as prestigious career path. Now it has turned more superficial. For some it is a good, stable career with predictable income and influence. For some however it is not a career milestone but a chance to prove themselves against all odds and it often comes at cost of their well-being. In modern era some bureaucrats have turned into social media influencers. They are posting more on social media and are doing little work. The harsh side of job has been ignored. The result is hodgepodge of public servant and influencer. Maybe in Pakistan symbols of power maybe just as powerful as authority itself.

Helen Keller in her autobiography talked about an odd wish about how would she live her life if she gets her vision for just three days. She says that on first day she will look at faces of people she love so that she can see glimmer of love in their eyes. On second day she might watch glamour of nature such as, rays of sunshine, fruits and flowers and blue sky. On third day she wish to see the world, markets, theatre, arts, to see human ability to make art. For her these sight for these three days would be a gift worth life time of darkness.
