

Women empowerment

Intro:

Hook:

Definition:

Thesis Statement:

Women empowerment is not only a human rights issue but an essential step for national growth, development, and Pakistan must bridge the gap between Policy and Practice to gain the potential.

outline:

2. Understanding Women Empowerment.

→ rights based approach

→ Difference between

"Women development" and

"Women Empowerment".

3. Social empowerment

→ Education, health, right to movement.

4. Economic Empowerment

- employment
- entrepreneurship
- property rights.

5. Political Empowerment

- Decision making
- representation

5. Psychological Empowerment

- self-worth
- Confidence
- Independence environment.

6. Women empowerment in Islam

False Narratives:

- Clearfying idea that islam restricts women.

→ Examples in Islam

Khadija (RA), Ayesha (RA)

and Role of every women in Islamic history.

→ In light of Quran and hadith

Conclusion

'There is no tool for development more effective than the empowerment of women' Kofi Annan.

Empowerment in the essence is the process of becoming stronger and more confident, especially in controlling one's life and claiming one's rights.

Therefore, women empowerment is the ability of women to have claim and are independent in decision making, equal rights, equal opportunities in education and employment, have right in politics for taking decision and lives a life free from violence and discrimination.