

Precis

One night, Abu Ben Adhem woke from deep sleep and saw an angel writing in a golden book. He asked if his name was among those who love God, but angel replied it was not. Abu then requested that his name be written among those who love their fellow men. The next night, the angel returned and showed him that his name was at the top of the list of those blessed by God.

Title: Love for Humanity is Love for God

Word count: 166

Precis : 78