

DATE: / /

National Officers Academy

Final Mock - 2026

Yusra Attique
390-B

English Essay.

The Year 2025 - Turning point for Pakistan

Outline

(i) Introduction

① Introductory Remarks

⑥ Thesis Statement: Despite ongoing challenges, 2025 represent a turning point for Pakistan as major changes in economy, governance, and foreign relations reshaped the country's direction.

(ii) What does turning point mean?

iii) The Year 2025 - Turning point for Pakistan because:

DATE: / /

(i) International
Pakistan inter

② In

For Instance

(iv) St

and G

⑥

(ii) From

For ex

we re

(iii) poli
through

beco

(iv) in

coll

a

DATE: / /

(i) International dimension shows Pakistan international engagement.

(a) Improved foreign relations

For instance, (i) US trade deal

(ii) Strengthening ties with China and Gulf states.

(b)

(ii) From political chaos to institution

For example:

(a) Constitutional reforms

were introduced.

(iii) political issues addressed through legal means.

(a) courts and parliament

become more active.

(iv) marked as the end of economic collapse

(i) Inflation rate decreased as per Pakistan economic survey.

TE: 11

- (v) ^{no} economic reforms introduced.
(i) Privatisation efforts introduced by Pakistan state.

(vi) Improvement in health sector.

(i) As per survey Pakistan polio cases decline.

(vii) Strengthens the role of social media.

(viii) Introduce digital Government services.

@ Taxes, utility payments turn to online.

(ix) Cultural and social awareness increased.

Conclusion

DATE: 1/1

A famous quote "After every darkness, light surely comes" shows Pakistan that, 2025 is one such important year for Pakistan. After many years of political instability, economic crisis, weak diplomacy and social problems, Pakistan in 2025 began to move from crisis toward stability. Not every year changes the history of a country. Some years only continue old problems, while some years change the direction of a nation. These years are turning points. This essay will explain why 2025 can be called a turning point for Pakistan. In essence, Despite ongoing challenges, 2025 represents a turning point for Pakistan as major changes in economy, governance and foreign relations reshaped the country's direction.

DATE: 11

The term turning point refers a time when old problem start losing strength, new policies and directions appear.

Important decision shape the future. When country moves toward improvement ~~from~~ instead of decline.

In this essay number of arguments shows that 2025 is a turning point for Pakistan because it changed the country's direction.

To begin with, Pakistan regain its international importance. Pakistan improved diplomatic relations with US, China, Gulf countries and neighbouring states. This engagement reduce international pressure.

Due to regional and global changes Pakistan location again ~~bec~~ important.

DATE: 1/1

for trade, security and regional connectivity. For example, Improved ties - Pakistan engagement after strained relations through high level diplomatic talks and trade deal with Pakistan. This example shows Pakistan relevance in international relations also a marked for progress.

In addition to, Pakistan avoided economic default. ~~Previous~~ Pakistan faces high inflation but prices began to stabilize in 2023. This stability is the first step toward recovery. The government controlled spending, reduced subsidies, and improved tax collection. These steps were necessary to stop economic losses. As per Pakistan Economic Survey Pakistan stepped into progress.

TE: 11

and development. Inflation rate reduced and the decline in inflation in 2025 marked the end of economic free fall. This argument shows Pakistan turning point towards stability.

Furthermore, Privatization initiatives ~~are~~ also ~~adding~~ introduced boosts economic confidence. From government expenditure to private ownership Pakistan will move towards development. For example, privatization steps (e.g., national airlines and energy sector discussions are signaled a shift toward market oriented reforms.

DATE: 1/1

Constitutional reforms were introduced. It saw institutional reform and intense politics that will shape governance for years. To prove with the help of example, the 27th constitutional amendment was passed in late 2025, revising judicial appointment process, federal provincial relations, and military command oversight. It is a structural shift towards governance. It shows a turning point for Pakistan.

Moreover, one of the most significant achievements ^{is} in Pakistan's public health decline in polio cases, improved vaccination and strengthening the primary healthcare. This proved that progress is possible where there is commitment.

DATE: 11

Further more, political issues addressed through legal means.

Pakistan empower parliament over courts. With the help of 26 amendment because it strengthens the role of executive with power that overruled the courts decision. It shows check and balance over judiciary through constitutional benches.

In addition to, Social media in 2025 played a key role in shaping cultural and political awareness. Due to growth of freelancing in 2025 highlighted technology as a new economic lifeline. IT exports increased gradually and Pakistan removed among freelancing countries. It shows transparency and efficiency

DATE: 1/1

To prove with the help of example, the introduction of AI-based learning tools in 2025 reflected Pakistan's digital transition. Increased in growth of Digital economy.

Last but not least, Despite difficulties public confidence improved as the situation stopped worsening. Pakistan shift from crisis mode to recovery mode. Pakistan can grow steadily. Institutions can strengthen youth can drive development. If reforms stop progress may reverse.

To conclude, 2025 is a turning point for Pakistan because Pakistan moved crisis to stability international stress improved.

DATE: / /

economy stopped collapsing institution
starting correcting themselves.

Pakistan did not solve all problems
in 2025 but it changed its path.

The landmark words are:

"Turning point donot
create success overnight;
they create the chance for success."