

TEST NO: 03

: 3/1

ENGLISH PRECI AND COMPOSITION

QUESTION: 01

Make preci of following passage.
Also give suitable title.

(i) Evolution of Informal Learning

(ii) Significance of Informal Learning

Despite of the presence of formally recognized sources of knowledge acquisition in form of classrooms and experienced mentors, the social cohesion and interaction serve as major contributors in learning of an individual. These informal means of learning are diversified in their sources which are ranging from unplanned public gatherings to public interactions at shared workplaces. These unplanned gatherings not only provides practical knowledge to the youth but also encourage skills of coordination, collaboration and communication among the youth. The conflictual ideas can arise during the discussions due to diversified human experiences, but optimal and consensus building resolution is the key trait a learner can learn from the discussions. ^{Such} These interactions modify the individual's perspective and align it more towards mutual respect and coordinated actions. This will boost the analytical skills of an individual and make it the one adaptable to one's evolving environment. This self-recognition helps individuals in professional and personal life.

However, the concerns regarding social disintegration and low public engagements at public places have surfaced. It will tarnish the aim of informal learning in form of practical knowledge acquisition. But some observers are of opinion that informal learning is evolving with the passage of time, keeping the instinct of social cohesion and practical knowledge acquisition at top priority.

Preci words: 210

Original Passage words: 980

QUESTION: 02

(i)

A series of experiments are being conducted by the researchers in the lab.

(iii)

My laptop has been stolen by someone from the office.

(iv)

The desert had been prepared by the chef before the guests arrived.

(vi)

The project will have been completed by them by next week.

(vii)

The problems assigned by the teacher are being solved by the students.

(ix)

He was saw by me delivering the speed to the crowd.

(x)

The mural was painted by the artist that decorates the city hall.

(viii)

Stricter environmental regulation should be implemented by the government.

(v)

Let the door be closed immediately

(if)

The final draft must be approved by the manager before submission.

QUESTION=04

TRANSLATION

Success in life is not merely defined by the matter of luck or fate; rather, it is the result of wisdom, hardwork and preserverance. Although life is not a bed of roses, those who possess determination and courage attains their final point. Some people are envious towards others' successes and make hasty decisions based on it, often endup in failure. In contrast, those who value experience and counsel carefully consider every challenge and make the most of every opportunity. Individuals who overcome their fault lines donot merely seek personal growth; they also pave the way for others. On the same ground, who inculcate knowledge from new experiences remain eager to learn and are capable of making wiser decisions in both thought and action.

QUESTION:03

Dialogue in Paragraph Form

Emma asked Jake if he had seen the latest draft of the community project proposal. Jake replied that he had looked over it last night and said that overall it was fine, but some parts needed more detail. Emma enquired which parts were unclear. Jake explained that the budget section was a bit vague and the timeline didn't really account for delays. Emma mentioned that she had noticed the same issues and asked if they should try to fix it before tomorrow's meeting. Jake agreed, adding that if they left it as it was, the committee might question their planning. Emma said she would handle the budget section and asked Jake to take care of the timeline. Jake agreed and suggested that they should also include a note about risk management, just in case. Emma thought it was a good idea and proposed that they meet after lunch to continue their changes and finalize the proposals. Jake agreed, expressing hope that this version would impress the committee and avoid unnecessary questions.

