

Vocabulary

Q No 3

(part A)

Synonyms

Correct Options

① B

② B

③ C

④ B

⑤ B

⑥ B

⑦ B

⑧ A

⑨ B

⑩ B

Q No 3

part B

Antonym

Ans

① B

② A

③ B

④ A

⑤ C

⑥ B

⑦ C

⑧ A

⑨ B

⑩ B

Reading Comprehension

Q No 1

Ans

① The author characterizes the nature of human memory as the combination of fear, belief and observation.

② It is because it is the combination of both the interpretation and the observation hence ~~so~~ described as both the reconstructive and selective.

③ As, it helps to understand the broader perspective of society by presenting the past events about society and culture.

④ The events specially about the joy and fear are related to emotions have different perspective with different influence too.

⑤ Because it is totally concerned with the personal identity belief and individual experience, hence considered as ~~the~~ inseparable from identity.

y ————— x

(3)

Pair of words

Q No: 2

Ans: -

① Taut, Taught

→ Taut means tightly stretched Sentence: His rope was pulled.

→ taut across the road.

→ Taught past tense of teach to teach something / instructions / training.

Sentence: Sir Ali Shahab taught us an easy way today.

② Peak, Pique

→ Peak = highest point (Mountain)

Sentence: K-2 is the highest peak of Pakistan.

→ Pique = Means feeling
curiosity / Interest

Sentence: The mystery piqued my interest.

③ Faint, Feint

Faint = Weak / lacking strength

Sentence: She felt faint in the heat.

Feint = Fake / deceptive move

Sentence: The boxer made a feint to distract his opponent.

(4)

(4) Hoard, Horde

Hoard : Means stored collection often secret/hidden

Sentence : He had a hoard of gold coins.

Horde : Means large group often unruly or disorderly

Sentence : Police reported a horde of tourists at pindi station.

(5) Loath, Loathe

Loath : Means unwilling/or reluctant

Sentence He is loath to leave early.

Loathe : Means to hate/dislike

Sentence : He loathes meat.