Question # 2 :-

Precis writing

Blindly Follow the Experts

According to the writer, individuals blindly follow the guidance of the experts, without knowing the fact that every mentor has its own expertise in his particular domain, not all. This pattern of guidance ~~and~~^{just} cover the glimpse of it, not all. Thus, the learners considered it as a whole picture. Consider the case study of Climate change, it has affected almost all ~~displine~~ disciplines. However, the institutions rely on few disciplines, leaving the loopholes. This leads the individuals towards uncertainty. Additionally, this makes the learner the puppet, who ^{es} do not take

Translation

Literature is the heartbeat of any society, that shows the reflection of its moral and spiritual conditions. When the literature of any nation will downsize, this means that nation comes to an end. Unfortunately, today's literature becomes business. The writer who sell his pen, just for the sake of money, actually he sell his inner self. Actual writers are those, who raise their voice for right and write against the wrong, even its demand sacrifices. But, in today's era, such writers are few. Some writers impress by the power, and they are busying busy in impressing the elite class. This is the dishonesty against literature and disloyalty against nation.
