

QUESTION NO.1

1) The author has characterized the ^{nature of} human memory as selective, reconstructive and socially influenced.

2) Human memory is reconstructive and selective.

Humans tend to focus and remember specific parts of a shared memory which makes it selective. It is also reconstructed by present ideas, ~~emotional~~ and different interpretation of same memory.

3) Collective memory plays a role in shaping the narratives of individuals, understanding the history, and making traditions and rituals of a society. This together plays a role in shaping societal understanding of individual.

4) When humans are in a certain emotional engagement, or perceive life in a certain manner, they tend to remember things in same pattern. This influences the memory and makes it selective.

5) Memory is inseparable from identity as it is affected by present ideas, life experiences, societal traditions and reinterpretation of ^{the} same memory.

QUESTION NO.2

iv) Loath , Loathe

- Ali's loath to perform made the event unsuccessful.
- Hassan's loathe for injustice is a good sign for this community.

vi) Incite , Insight

- People should avoid inciting others during a political debate.
- The report submitted was quite insightful.

v) Gamble , Gambol

- Students should not gamble in their career choices.
- The mother stopped her child to gambol in park as grass was muddy.

i) Taut , Taught

- The report on sustainable development was insightful and taut.

- My teachers have taught me well.

ii) Faint, Feint

- Doctors make sure that patients eat well so that they don't faint from weakness.
- Haider avoided opponets feints through out the game.

QUESTION NO 3

(PART NO-A)

1) Impervious

Resistant

2) La Conic

Brief and to the point

3) Obsequious

Honest

4) Venerate

Honor

5) Trepidation

Anxiety

6) Cogent

Weak

7) Fastidious

Meticulous

8) Impetuous

Rash

9) Auspicious

Promising

10) Recondite

Complex and little known.

(PART NO. B)

1) Inscrutable

Transparent

2) Malevolent

Benevolent.

3) Impervious

Penetrable

4) Ambivalent

Certain

5) Voracious

Moderate

6) Intractable

Manageable

7) Tacit

Explicit

8) Laconic

Wordy

9) Mollify

Soothe

10) Obscure

Conspicuous