critical juncture in our nation's history. We must ask ourselves, 'Are we prepared to face the challenges ahead or shall we succumb to despondency and inaction?' Dr. Ahmed - the renowned economist - had warned us last year that unless immediate reforms are undertaken, the will collapse. However, his advice was not heeded; & now, we find ourselves in precisely the predicament he had predicated. Therefore, I urge you all to support the government's new economic policy which - though painful in the short-term - will yield beneficial results in the long-run. Let's not..." Q 7:

Transliteration

Literature is the backbone of a society which reflects its moral and spiritual status. When literature of a nation fades in, it is time to understand that the consequences will impact them badly. Unfortunately, it has become worthless now and Mafia have captured it. A writer who sells his thoughts for the sake of money, are in fact selling their conscientiousness. Real writer is the one who stands with right and writes against the acts of mischief, though, he had to face challenges; ^{but} ~~but~~ such writers are lacking nowadays. Most of them fawn

Precise

Power Of Common Sense

Life in today's era has brought complicated intellectual problems. One feels less competent by the expansion of knowledge. According to the author that we cannot be expert in every field; a specialist of one field has his own pattern of thinking and so the economist, ^{the} biologists, and ^{the} psychologists. Similarly, every expert has one truth ~~in~~ of ^{particular} specific portion of life and a mystery also. It has confused human beings in real life. Further more, a single issue is explicated in public by government with different angles covered by the different experts. The people resultantly remain unaware from a whole story. Today's world is divided into different parts and every part showing a tampered image of the reality. The increased power of ~~skilled~~^{tal} and professionals has weakened a common understanding. According to the author we quest experts' knowledge for a daily life as ^{it} is necessary in every aspect; it makes us overly dependent on petty things of life.
