Punctuate

If you look about you and consider the lives of others as well as your own, if you think how few are born with honour and how many die without name or children, how little beauty we see and how few friends we hear of, how many diseases and how much poverty there is in the world. You will fall down upon knees and instead of repining at one affliction, will admire so many blessings which you have received from the hand of god.

Title: Decline And Legacy Of Oratory

Future of oratory is uncertain because word orator has lost it's previous importance and today it is used with derisory accent. In ancient times, orators loved to speak publically and considered it a valuable task. But today this interest has declined due to rise of the written documents, broadcasting and large number of public speakers which leave no space for perfection in speech. Winston Churchill, however is an outstanding personality. Like previous great orators he delivers speech by
