The situation in Balochistan has become nightmare for the people of province. The peace in Balochistan is possible by working for welfare of people of province, securing the border of Iran and implementing law and order. The peace in Balochistan can be achieved by doing crackdown against the militants, mitigating with the issue of missing person and building institutes to promote the education. The reasons which provoke the stressful environment in Balochistan are lack of education, chaos in society and spike in terrorist attacks.

To cut the story short, there is no big issue in establishing peace in Balochistan by implementing law and order.

The peace in Balochistan is possible by securing the border of Pakistan with Iran. The militants groups come from border of Iran which causes chaos in society. The border of Iran with Pakistan requires strict surveillance not to allow non-state actor to interfere in province matters. In short, peace cannot be established without making the territory safe.
