

Full Book

English Preci AND Composition

PART-I

MCQ'S

QNo:01 (a)

- (1) Tactile
- (2) Inevitable
- (3) Admire
- (4) Rife
- (5) Factions
- (6) Obscure
- (7) Ivy
- (8) Vivid
- (9) Craftiness
- (10) Apathetic

QNo:01 (b)

- (1) Unrepentant
- (2) Praise
- (3) Certify
- (4) Prevent
- (5) Joy
- (6) Shrink
- (7) Urge
- (8) Depressed
- (9) Miserly
- (10) Evident

Part-II

Punctuation

If you look about you and consider the lives of others as well as your own; if you think how few are born with honor, and how many die without name or children; how little beauty we see, and how many friends we hear of; how many diseases, and how much poverty there is in the world. You fall down upon knees and instead of- repining at one affliction will admire so many blessings which you have received from the hand of God.

Preci

Sir Winston Churchill: Greatest Orator of His Age

Predicting the future of oratory is indefinite. The word orator of ancient societal darkness times symbolises the people of that time which were bestowed with noble tasks of writing. Their art of writing is not only setting the future works but also validating the reliability of their work; therefore, it demands precision. However, in recent times, the word orator is <sup>oftenly</sup> used in a gesture of taunt among the modern men. With the advent of printing in communication networks, modern busy men and women undergo multiple conversational dialogues and meetings which have discouraged perfect utilization of words <sup>to convey meaning</sup> in their speaking. Sir Winston Churchill is exception. He is the saviour of golden age of oratory. His writings are full of zest and convey the meaning of words and ideas, effectively. English writing consists of multiple famous writers, Sir Winston is one of them. He has introduced himself at national and international level with his writings. His gracious speeches have not only set the standard of best human speeches but also add on the legacy of his work. His work portrayed him ~~in~~ as the finest personalities of his time.

Original Passage Words: 516
Preci Words: 172

QUESTION: 04

PART: A

iii

Though she studied hard, she failed the exam.

iii

This is the perfect solution to the problem.

v

A large amount of books was donated to the library.

vii

She doesnot have enough time to finish the project.

vi

They suggested us to join the club.

viii

It is Sara and Maria's house.

: ٥٦

: ٥٥

QUESTION: 05

PART: A

(iii) All the neighbors were there except <sup>the</sup> new one.

(v) He succeeded with a little help.

(vi) We don't have a coffee maker at work

(vii) By the time we started dinner, the food was cold.

(ix) The fireman led the people away from the burning building.

QUESTION 06 (PART: A)

(iii)

Object

Tree is an object of living nature.

Abject

The poorman is living in abject misery.

(iv)

Enmity

The neighbor is calling the police in discord to fulfil his enmity.

Amity

There is amity between the two neighboring countries

(vi) ~

Pour

Please pour the hot water of pot into the bucket.

Pore

Cell membrane consists of pores for transport of materials inside and out of the cell.

(vii) ~

Especially

Both the friends are suffering from hard times, especially Mr. Ahmar.

Specially

The party was thrown specially for my success.

(viii) ~

Everyday

~~This~~ My everyday routine is to work 6-5pm.

every day

He goes to school every day.

QUESTION: 07

The tragedy of our society is that each person ~~complains about evolution~~ but speaks in favor of evolution but feels cold when time of action hails upon them. The slogans of change are echoed in procession, the policies are met with tremendous correction's suggestions, but they are void of / disdain of adopting a minute resolution in their daily life proceedings. The result is that, society has turned into double faced mirror: on one side dreams are accruing and on other side false reality is presided. We all want to bring change in others' life but conceited of ourselves. Though each person is perfectly aligned with <sup>core belief of</sup> darkness under the lamp. Nations are not shaped by slogans, they are virtue of character. And character demands the civic mindedness and transparency; Otherwise, collective prosperity is <sup>left</sup> devoid of its collective will.

QUESTION: 03

(i)

Sportsmanship is the behavioral characteristic of a sporter in terms of which he deals with sport, game or player in a sport situation. A true sportsmanship <sup>not only</sup> demands fairness, self-control, courage and persistence but also underscores designated rules of sportsman towards himself, opponent and authorities.

The four elements of sportsmanship consist of exhibiting good form, demonstrating will to win, showing equity and developing fairness in dealings. However, it is crucial to maintain balance among them to demonstrate true sportsmanship. The true spirit of statesmanship is deteriorated in self-centered approach of a sportsman.

The desire to win more than the play conflict with elements of equity and fairness in of state sportsmanship because the person who has become selfish for winning the game considers himself to be a good sportman; however, he deteriorates the core aspects of states sportsmanship in his self centeredness.

iv

A sore loser having poor sportsmanship qualities is generally unrepentant towards his fault lines. However, he absconds others for the loss, acts unprofessionally, makes lame excuses and cites unfavourable conditions for the loss. On the contrary, A bad winner having poor sportsmanship qualities, brags on his win and tarnishes the confidence and morale of opponent player in the game. The demoralizing gesture of a bad winner towards opponent shatters the confidence of opponent player, which can have long lasting impacts.