

Q-3

The Crimean War was the opening of doors in the new boom in European history and the cry to the town was held in Berlin.

Instructions

1. Give numbering to headings and subs of German and Italian unification...?
2. Do not write lengthy paragraphs. Write medium sized paragraphs with headings.
3. There should be around 15 headings for 20 marks question.

Introduction:

4. Draw figures/diagram/flowchart where needed.
5. Start new question from fresh page.
6. Each answer should start with Introduction and end with Conclusion.
7. Give more weightage to expressly asked parts of the question.
8. Change colour scheme for references to give them more visibility.
9. Manage time well.
10. Wide page borders are discouraged. Should be reasonable.
11. Avoid writing wrong references.

unification of Germany and Italy completed in 1871. It opened a new chapter in the history of Europe and shattered the desires of ~~an~~ aristocratic rules.

The Crimean War was the opening of a door into a new room in European history and the key to the door was held in Berlin-

The concept of Europe envisioned a peaceful Europe with the rule of old system of aristocracy and monarch. However, within short time, revolutions ignited and spread in various parts of western and Eastern Europe based on nationalism and liberal democracy. This led to Crimean War in Eastern Europe. Soon the Triumph of nationalism ^{parts of} was spread in other Ottoman empire and them in disintegrated Germany and Europe.

The Eastern Question:

The Eastern Question referred to the gap and complexities that gradually created in Europe after the decline of Ottoman Empire.

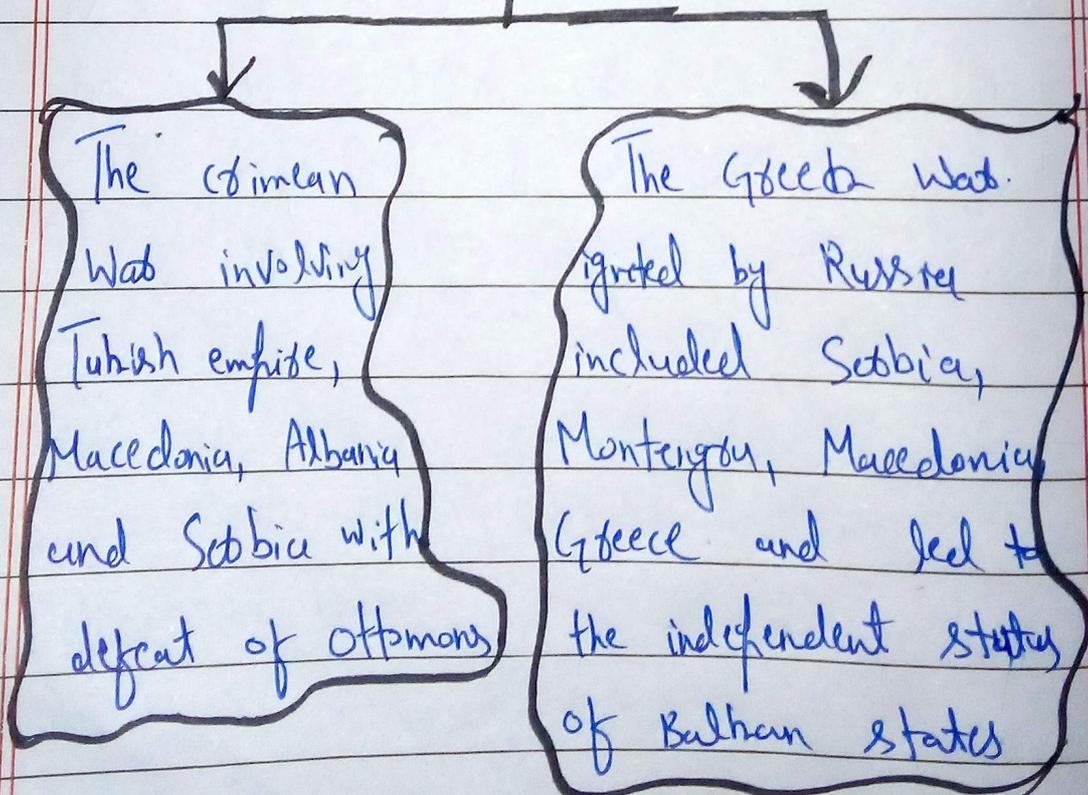

The decline of Ottoman Empire led to complexities in the Eastern Europe and led to conflicts among major powers to control Empire's territories.

Background: The Ottoman Empire "The Sick Man of Europe"

Ottoman Empire was huge and had vast mountainous territories. Most of the Eastern European territories in Balkan region were not under the direct rule of Sultan and controlled by governors. There was major corruption, inefficient military and the forced conversion of Christians into Islam. This led to bloody conflicts between Turkish officials and Balkan people.

Major wars that led to the disintegration of Ottoman Empire:

Later on the crisis of Eastern Question led to

Balkan War I

Balkan War II

Ottoman Empire that was economically and militarily weak was defeated in all wars and finally disintegrated with the territories of Turkey left.

The Unification of Italy:

This is the other major event in the history of European revolutions, and led to triumph of nationalism in Europe.

Background: disintegrated Italy:

The Roman empire was disintegrated after the Napoleon's defeat of Rome its territories were divided among various rulers.

to Napoleon and his relatives.
The Congress of Vienna also kept it disintegrated.

Impact of European revolutions,
Cimbrun was on the Italian unification.

As the revolution initiated across Europe by dissatisfied nations Italian were also inspired and the success of Cimbrun was further incited them. There were various secret societies led by Garibaldi and LA Fusiery. These spiritic pushed the unification of all Italian states and the membership increased to millions.

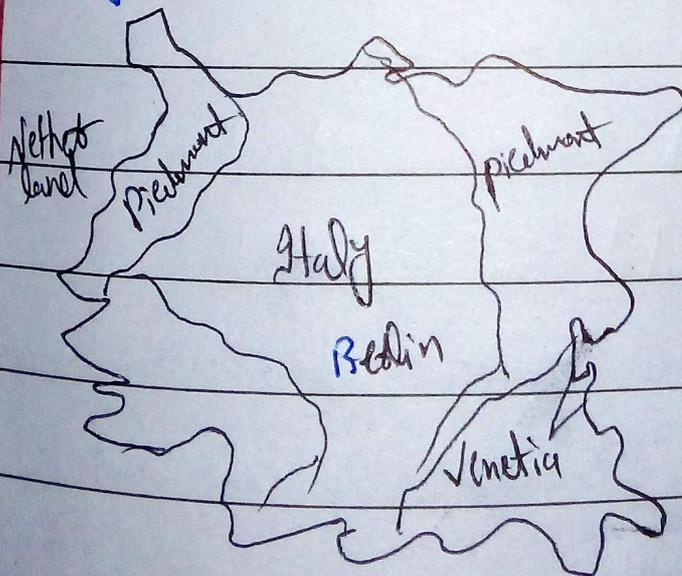

Role of Piedmont in unification:

Cimbrun Piedmont led by King Victor Emmanuel II played key role in the unification of all Italian states under Piedmont based

P.V.

on its economic and military power
Cavour's skillful diplomacy:
 Cavour was the main architect of unification.

Cavour was the prime minister of Piedmont. His skillful diplomacy led to alliance with Napoleon III from France and neutrality of Britain
 He defeated Austria and unified number of Italian states, remaining were unified by Garibaldi except Papal states and Venetia These two states were, later on, added to Italy after German unification

Unified Italy

Day: _____

German unification:

Background:

Like Italy Germany was also disintegrated during the Napoleonic wars and a new confederation of Rhine was formed. It was divided between Eastern and Western Germany.

Role of Prussia under Bismarck

Bismarck, the Prime minister of Prussia was considered as the founder of modern Germany. His economic, military reforms, Zollverein system, isolation of enemy through his skillful diplomacy resulted in defeat of Austro-Prussian War and the unification of Germany. Franco-Prussian war 1871 completed the unification of Germany with the conquest of Prussia.

Day: ___

Conclusion:

The Crimean War was the big event in European unification and independence movement. It led to disintegration of Ottoman Empire, independence of Balkan States,
unification of Italy and Germany.
All these developments established the triumph of nationalism and liberalism and the doors of new crisis in Europe which led to WWI

Q. 4

The great alliance have always been the most fertile cause of war" Discuss how formation of pre-war alliances triggered WWI?

Introduction:

WWI was the major event of early years of 20th century in the Europe. It devastated major powers, millions of casualties and the collapse of European economy. Among many causes, the division of Europe into two alliance Triple Alliance and Triple Entente was the major development in this regard. It led to mutual hostilities and conflictual interest and then subsequently a great war in the

Day: _____

European history, the war ended with defeat of Triple Alliance.

Formation of pre-war alliances:

At the dawn of 20th century, Europe was divided into two hostile camps led by Germany on one hand and Britain on other hand. There was complete distrust and hostilities after alliances a major war was inevitable. The later developments were ignited by these blocs and led to WWI.

Formation of Triple-Alliance:

After the completion of German unification, Bismarck wanted to prevent the attack of Austria through possible alliance with Russia. So he formed alliance with both states in 1872.

The Eastern question and alliances:

Austria and France had conflicting interests in the days of Eastern question and wanted to control Balkan. These developments caused Bismarck to choose one power and he chose Austria due to same ethnic population related on Russians in resentment turned to Britain after growing relations between Germany and Austria.

From dual to triple Alliance with inclusion of Italy

The alliance of Germany and Austria included Italy after the attack of Russia on its territory.

The Triple Entente:

France was looking for new ally in the Europe. when British minister visited France, they shared same views over Germany. Britain made major investment in France and later on both states entered into alliance.

Russia became part of Entente:

Russia after withdrawal from Germany was eager to find new alliance. She had good relations with France. Britain was powerful competitor to Germany. As result Russia also joined their alliance.

Japan included and formed Triple Entente from Entente cordial

Japan defeated Germany and was key ally of Britain so Japan was also included and the entente cordial became Triple Entente.

Triplic Entente vs Triplic Alliance

Russia, Britain, Japan, France	Germany, Austria- Hungary, Italy and ottoman empire.
-----------------------------------	--

The formation of pre-war alliance and WWI

Mutual Hostilities

There were mutual hostilities between both alliances - These hostilities led to military buildup and spendings on warfates and prepared Europe for war

"War was the solution to all the problems in Europe"
(observed by European scholars)

Conflicting interests of Powers:

Motivated, the conflicting interests of powers in Europe

Day: _____

made war inevitable. The conflicting interests of powers in Balkan regions resulted in immediate crisis and led to war.

The Balkan War and Alliance System

The first and second Balkan war led to independence of Serbia, Macedonia and Greece. They were dissatisfied with territories and aspired for more territories from Austria. Austria and Serbia initiated conflicts over the territories annexed to Austria.

Sarajevo incident and role of alliances.

After the death of Austrian Archduke in Sarajevo, Austria mobilized army against Serbia. Russians backed Serbia and hence declared war.

Germany the ally of Austria also mobilized its army.

Alliance System brought Europe in a war:

Russia backed Serbia and Germany backed Austria and declared war on both Russia and its ally France. Soon major powers of Europe found themselves in war.

The local war turned to WWI of Europe.

Germany when invaded the neutral Netherlands it brought Britain in war against Germany.

The WWI hence began:

As result of alliance the war that began between Austria and Serbia, spread in the whole Europe and all major powers

Day: _____

participated and began the great war of Europe. It ended with defeat of Triple Alliance led by Germany.

Conclusion:

WWI was the major event of European history. Alliance system played fundamental role in sparkling the war and changed the local into WWI. Their mutual distrust, hostilities and military expansion made it clear that the war was imminent.
WWI was followed by economic depression and dictatorship in Europe.

Q 5:

The Security dilemma of France, captured in Clemenceau's statement, America is far away, protected by ocean, not even Napoleon himself could touch England.....?

Introduction

After the defeat of Germany in WWI, European statesmen gathered in Palace of Versailles and signed treaty of Versailles with Germany. France was the main architect of treaty after facing just aggression of Germany. It developed harsh peace terms for the Germany and had held it responsible for war crimes. It led to economic collapse in Germany followed by rise of Nazism. It hence completely broke down

Day: _____

interwar period and sowed the seeds of great war in the history of Europe.

Treaty of Versailles

After the end of WWI, Germany was defeated and entered into treaty of Versailles with European powers. Treaty was signed in the hall of mirrors, Palace of Versailles, France.

France was the main architect of treaty and designed it based on its Security Dilemma.

In the treaty of Versailles, France played key role in its development. France was facing security dilemma due to previous aggression by Germany and hence developed key punitive measures for Germany to prevent future aggression.

Treaty of Versailles

- Germany was held responsible for all the war crimes and damage caused.
- It had to cede most of her territories.
- It lost 1/5th of its population.
- All the military and assets were confiscated.
- European army would be deployed in Germany.
- Its army was reduced to 100,000.
- It had to pay major war indemnity.

The main purpose of the treaty was to weaken the military power of Germany in order to prevent future aggression.

Date: ___/___/___

Treaty of Versailles led to breakdown of interwar period:

Germany's resentment towards treaty:

There was strong resentment among Germans towards the clauses of treaty. The government of Germany was called November Criminal after signing the treaty.

The rise of Nazism in Germany:

The popularity of Nazis led by Hitler increased after his promise to reverse the clauses of treaty and ultimately brought him to the war.

Germany's withdrawal from LON:

The major factor led to the breakdown of interwar period was the withdrawal of

Alsace-Lorraine

Germany from LON on grounds that it was not treated equally by the other member states.

Hitler's territorial ambition:

Hitler's pledged to regain the glorious status of Germany increased his territorial ambitions. He regained Poland the main territorial ^{part} of Germany.

Military buildup in Europe:

Another factor behind the breakdown of interwar period is the rapid military buildup. After Germany's rearmament, other nations faced security dilemma and then accelerated their naval and military buildup across Europe.

Day: _____

Alliance of Hitler and Mussolini:

Another development was the military alliance between Hitler and Mussolini from Italy. They initiated a successful civil war in Spain and formed their puppet government.

The Rome-Berlin axis:

The alliance between Germany, Italy and Russia also known as Rome-Berlin axis was formed as a new alliance system in Europe against Britain.

The Appeasement policy towards Germany:

Britain's Chamberlain developed an appeasement policy towards Germany, based on the view that it would present future was with Germany.

Attack of Germany on Czechoslovakia

To reverse the clauses of Treaty of Versailles, Hitler demanded Sudetenland from Czechoslovakia after getting it he was not gratified and held a attack on Czechoslovakia to get more territories.

Attack on Poland and WWII began:

Let us on Hitler attacked Poland, which was declared as neutral by Britain and France after the attack both powers intervened and WWII began a new great war in the history of Europe.

Conclusion:

The clauses of Treaty of Versailles held Germany responsible for the war and precipitated Europe for new era of war in its history. Territorial ambitions of Hitler, dictatorial power of Mussolini, security dilemma of Napoleon II and the appeasement policy of Britain and France brought whole into new war, which devastated it economically and socially.

Q-7

The Great Depression:
The catalyst for the WWII:

Introduction:

During the inter war period, the economy of European powers collapsed with the arrival of great Depression period in Europe. It led to conflicts and revolutions within European states including Germany, Italy and Russia. This led to triumph of dictatorship in Europe. These dictators began their territorial ambitions in the Europe and brought Europe into world war. It destroyed economy, military power of European states and resulted in millions of deaths.

Day: _____

The great depression period:

In 1929, USA Wall Street exchanged began to decline due to rapid loss of its reserves. People, in haste way, bought all the shares business and banks collapsed resulted in the crash of Wall Street exchanged.

The collapse of European economy:

European powers which were hardly recovered from economic impacts of WWI, collapsed economically after great depression period. All the countries were required by USA to pay all the loans. It halved the Economy of Germany and Italy as they were dependent on US loans.

Day: _____

Rise of dictatorship in Germany, Italy and Russia:

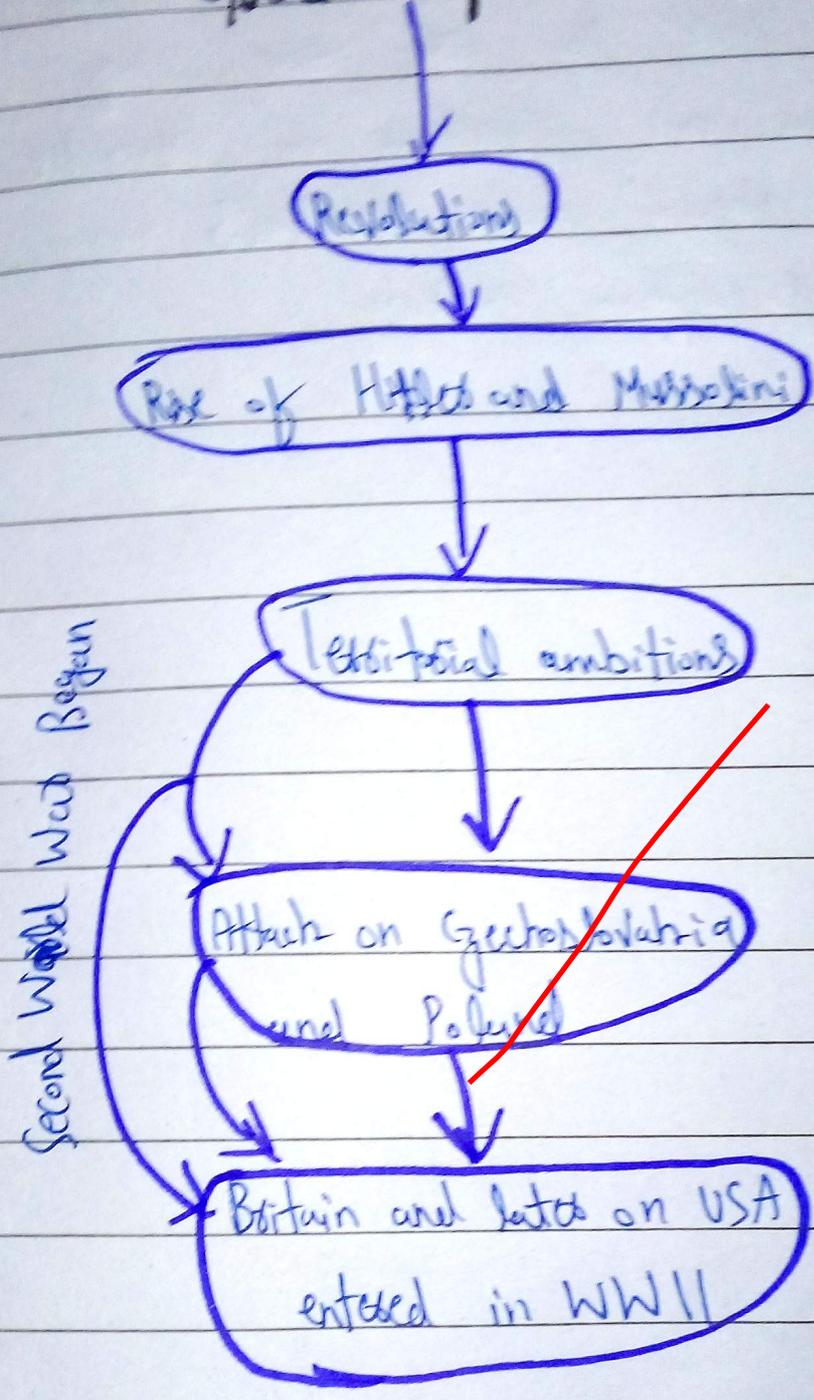

After the economic collapse of Great Depression period, the working class conducted major revolution and brought dictatorship in Russia, Germany and Italy led by Hitler, Mussolini and Lenin succeeded by Stalin.

Roads to WWII

ultimately the great depression period → led to → revolution → dictatorial side → Territorial ambitions → WWII.

So the great depression basically served as catalyst for WWII and sowed the seeds of another war in Europe which devastated whole Europe.

Great Depression

Conclusion:

WWII was another major event in the European history of wars. It was sparked by the Great Depression period in Europe that led to the rise of Nazism and Fascism in Europe and began new territorial acquisitions in European history.