Gender study?
Different from women
study. --?

Introduction.

Gender study is the study that How gender forms and How it is created. Gender is socially and culturally created role, values, customs and function neither than biological. Therefore, the study of gender construction, role, identities, function and behavior is called gender study. Gender study is interdisciplinary with woman study but woman study is minor subject. Gender study fall gender not only women, but women study integrates only women in research and experiments.

Date: _____

Gender study

Gender study is acquired, social constructed, culturally influenced, social learning and behavior adopting formation and construction of gender.

The study of gender is called gender study. It is clear that its approach includes all gender in research and experiment not only women.

The origin of Gender study as a discipline

Gender study became the specific academic discipline first in United States of America in 1980.

It was multidisciplinary subject and now women study has become separate subject.

Gender Study in Pakistan

In 1988, Benazir Bhutto focused and granted amounts for gender study as a discipline in five universities of Pakistan.

So, this subject became the part of separate academic subject.

How gender study is different from women study

(i) Gender study is a broad subject

Gender study is a broad subject and it includes all gender in research and study. While women study is only the study of women issues.

(ii) Gender study is the subject of all genders, ^{study} women only women.

All genders issues, behaviors and role are the parts of gender study but women ~~discussed~~ only women issues and role.

(iii) Broad Knowledge vs Limited Knowledge.

Gender study is the broad subject and it is full of all genders issues and matters. but women study highlights and ~~discussed~~ only women related knowledge.

LGBTIAH
(iv) Third gender, ~~and~~ men issues (vs) only women issues.

Gender study, highlights and identifies the lesbian, gay, Bi-sexual, trans-sexual and A-sexual issues but women study ~~identifies~~ only women centric issues.

(v) Broad ambit vs limited Ambit.

Gender Study has large ambit but women study has less and limited ambit.

Autonomy. (^{only} Women study)

This is the debate which emphasizes on women study as a separate subject in academic discipline and research.

Some persons opinion was that women study should not merged in all gender issue because women study is a separate subject.

Reason

i) Women are more in the world and they are facing multiple issues.

ii) women study integration in

in gender study would reduce the value and development.

(iii) Women study autonomy is more fruitful than integration in Gender Study.

(iv) Women study should not merged in Gender Study.

(4th variation)

Women study integrate in gender study

Gender study is the broad subject and women is also a gender. So, women study must be integrated in gender study.

(i) Women study should integrate in gender study.

(ii) Women issues are gender issues.

(iii) Women are not separate from gender

(iv) Gender study is not a complete field unless women study

Date: _____

Integrated at Conclusion.

Gender study is the study of all gender that how genders are formed. Gender is socially constructed phenomenon. Gender study is multidisciplinary, broad and more knowledge subject but women study is limited subject. Further, autonomy debates favors women study as a separate subject but integration favors women study ^{should} integrate into gender study.
