

GENERAL FEEDBACK FOR ESSAYS

Content (40%)

Your interpretation should be in depth, comprehensive and academic.

Always address the asked part. It should be evident in your outline, which should be self-explanatory in nature.

Essays/Outlines that give related information without addressing the asked part do not qualify.

The whole essay should be relevant. Even if 1-2 arguments are irrelevant the essay will not pass.

Distribution of topic should be according to the demand of the topic statement i.e. if there is one scoring point it should be given more weight, if there are 2 or more scoring points all should be given equal weight.

All claims made in the essay must be substantiated. Out of 15-17 arguments at least 9-10 should be academically backed with proper references. The rest should be backed by either case studies or generally known information.

Evidence must be authentic and come from proper and authentic academic sources. Newspapers do not qualify as an academic source. Illustrations and vague mentions of events do not qualify as academic evidence.

Essays that are lacking in evidence do not qualify.

LANGUAGE (25%)

Focus on enhancing your grammar as any essay with 4-5 grammatical mistakes does not pass.

Your essay must be in the tone and tense of the topic statements. Essays that fail to comply do not pass.

Your sentence structure should be simple, yet clear and diversified.

Vocabulary used should be simple, clear and concise.

Expression should always be formal and academic.

You are never to write in 1st and 2nd person pronouns.

You must always use the given keywords and your topic for your thesis statements and main headings in your outline.

STRUCTURE (20%)

Your essay must follow the selected pattern and that structure should be maintained throughout.

INTRODUCTION: The introduction is the longest paragraph of the essay, at least 200 words. It should start with a hook, must give the glimpse of what's to come and must have a thesis statement. Besides hook, your introduction should not have any sort of information and reference. Avoid definitions in introduction.

7/3

Very poor presentation.
No relevant discussion.

X 30

NO MARKS

The outline does not address the asked part. The topic is not child labour. It is neglect of child labour. You are to argue how/why it is a neglected issue. The consequences of neglecting the issue and how to overcome neglect.

(ii) Industrialization and maximum labouring opportunities.

(iii) Impact of Child Labour.

(A) Low literacy rate.

(B) Violation of children rights.

(C) Increasing crime rates.

(D) Demoralization of new generation.

(E) Declining the country status at ~~at~~ international level.

(iv) Solutions of Child Labour.

(A) Effective child protection act and compulsory education policies.

(B) Strict law enforcement agencies against child labour.

(C) Investing sufficient GDP on child education.

(D) Implementing the policies of International Labour Organization and United Nation Organization on Child Labour/Rights.

(v) Pakistan Child Protection act 2015

(vi) Conclusion.

"One Child, One teacher, One book and one Pen can change the World." This is the statement of Malala Yousafzai, Pakistani woman educationalist she says that one child can change the world through education. Therefore, it is necessary for all nations to provide educational opportunities to their children because they have ability to change the world. All nations which are strong today, they did not achieved success in a day, but they invested on children, and now they are developed. The great United States and England, that are strong now, they have proved that in the past, they have invested on children. Therefore, children education is necessary for development and growth for a nation. Undoubtedly, child labour is a major issue in the developing countries. There are several reasons behind Irrelevant to the context.

She is not an educationalist.

educationalist

Irrelevant details.

No example
Intro

Child labour, but the major causes of child labour are poverty, parental death, political destabilization and bad governance, limited job opportunities and unpaid industrialization with labouring opportunities. As the result, illiteracy, demoralization of children, increasing crime rates and declining the country status at international level. These issues are not descend from the heaven, which can be eliminated. However, it is a dire need to eliminate child labour. Child labour can be eliminated through effective legislation against child labour, strong law enforcement agencies, increasing investment on education sector and implementing the policies of international labour organization and United Nation Protection on children rights. In conclusion, child labour is major increasing issue in the developing world. It is necessary to eliminate it, that the economic condition and international status of a country will improve.

Sentence structure
Also don't list all the points in one sentence.

Similar Structure

Empirical Data

Connectivity between paragraphs

~~Poverty and parental death~~ ~~are~~ the major problems behind child labouring. Children move towards labouring because they are economically weak and their social and economic needs push the children towards labouring. One of the major social issues is parental death behind the child labour. Mostly children move towards employment because their parents are not alive and their economic needs could not ^{be} acknowledged.

Children do not opt for child labour, they are forced into it.

No argumentation
No analysis. No structure to the paragraph. No evidence
Incoherent and irrelevant.

It is an estimated ~~that~~ poverty and parental death are the major problems behind child labouring. Thus, poverty must be Reduced in order that child labour could be eliminated.

Limited job opportunities after education is one of the major issues behind child labouring.
Parents preferred child labouring to future unemployment after completion of degree many parents can afford the expenses of education but can't invest on children and think that it is the loss of money because of limited employment opportunities to be in future. According to the report of "School Education Formulation of Pakistan" admission rate of children have decreased 2% in this year" (2025). Therefore, parents order children towards child labour rather than education.

No argumentation
No analysis. No structure to the paragraph Incoherent and irrelevant.

Evidence does not match the argument.

Political instability and bad governance is the main reason behind child labouring. Weak institutions and Political Polarization, discouraged students in education because institutions do not provide their services efficiently, and Political leaders do not formulate Policies for children development and ^{easy} education. Therefore, weak legislation in efficiency ⁱⁿ services delivery, ^{and} weak law enforcement agencies are the main reason that discourage

Children towards education and then they decide to do work due to ~~dis-satisfaction~~ ~~from~~ government. As the conclusion, political instability, poor legislation, weak institutions are the main reasons that ~~dis-satisfy~~ children for bright future through education. Thus government and legislature must address these issues.

Less investment on education sector is the major reason behind child labouring. Strong education institution comes through high investment, and ~~research~~ and development. ~~the~~ Countries that have more child labour, they less invest on education sector. Finland and Norway are the major countries in ^{childhood} education because they invested 6 to 7 Percent of their GDP on education sector. Finland and Norway have not child labour. Further, Pakistan and India invested less on education. Now, the child labour has reached above

3% in the both countries.
An conclusion, ~~less~~ investment on education sector is the major reason that encourage children toward early employment.

~~Emerging industrialization is the one of the major causes behind child labouring. Industrialization provides employment opportunities to children. Children prefer labouring rather than skills and education. Child-parents argues that after degree, they become labourer so, parents move children towards labouring. Parents prefer towards labouring because they live in industrial city. Thus emerging industrialization is the major reason behind child labouring.~~

There are multiple reasons behind child labouring. In the result, child labour impacted on different ways. The impact of Child labours are given as under

Low literacy rate is one of the major impacts of child labouring. Children are the future of every nation it is necessary to provide them education rather than labouring opportunities. Therefore, illiteracy is the source of unemployment, poverty, social divorce and poor economic growth. According to the report of World Bank 72.8 million children are out of school (2024). Thus, one of the major loss of child labouring is illiteracy. In conclusion, child labouring must be eliminated that literacy rate can increase.

Children labouring is the violation of child rights. Child labour is against the human rights and some countries constitutions because it is the right of every children to provide them education. According to the report of International Labour Organization

" 12-5 million children ~~that are~~ is working in domestic, industrial and agriculture sectors of Pakistan and their age is ~~in~~ between 12 to 14 year"
In conclusion, it is the major violation of human rights and constitutions of many countries.
^{rights}

Child labouring is the major reason behind juvenile crime rate in Pakistan. Children who ~~work~~ in industries and in commercial ~~sectors~~, they have ^{more} opportunities to ~~commit~~ crimes. According to the report of juvenile crimes in Pakistan " Juvenile commits crimes in urban areas". The reason be ^{hind} juvenile delinquency is child labouring because child labour mostly work in urban areas and they have ^{more} opportunities to commit crimes. In conclusion, child labouring is the major reason behind juvenile delinquency.

Demagolization is the major impact of child labour. Child labourers are uneducated because they not enroll in schools for education. As the result, they have demoral behaviours and this behavior is the root cause of child rights and children social disintegrations. Children learn in society and peers. Thus, demoral behavior which is the root cause of social disintegration is acquired through child labouring. In conclusion, child labourers disintegrate the society. Thus, it must be eliminated through effective social norms and values.

Child labour declined the country status at international level. Child labour is considered a violation of human rights at international level. Foreign direct investment decreased due to ^{more} child labour. Thus, child labour is the source of international status declination. In conclusion, child labour decline the image of country at global level.

Hence, there are numerous impact of child labour. However, it is a dire need to counter it. The solutions of child labour are given below.

Child Protection act is the prominent solution of child labour. Children can get their rights through effective legislation. Therefore, effective legislation for child protection and compulsory education as necessary to reduce child labour. Finland which have highest education ratio in world. They have passed effective legislation against child labour. In conclusion, it is necessary that compulsory education and child protection be provided to every children.

Strict law enforcement agencies can't only reduce child labour, but it can eliminated it. Therefore, strict law enforcement agencies are required to eliminate child labour, but law enforcement agencies can come into power through effective legislation in favour of children. United States of America has empowered their law enforcement agencies against child labour, and now United States of America has 95% of literacy ratio and zero percent of child labour.

In conclusion, law enforcement agencies must be empowered to counter child labour issue.

High investment on education and human development is a way that can discourage children towards labouring. High investment on education produced numerous opportunities to students, for example, internships, scholarships, free books and travelling opportunities. Therefore investment on education sector is the way to eliminate child labour. In conclusion, human development and literacy can discourage children towards labouring.

One of the major strategies towards children rights and against child labour is implementing the policies of International Labour Organization and United Nations Organization on Children rights. These organizations provide a framework which protects the children rights and encourages human development. All countries which are developed and have no child labour, they have implemented these rights; England, Switzerland and Norway have implemented these rights in their states. In the nutshell, it is a dire need to implement these rights for the favour of children.

Pakistan Child Protection act, protects the children rights. Pakistan passed it in 2015. This act is implemented in Pakistan, which prohibits all persons that encourage child labour. This act is a legal framework in the favour of children. Further, this act provides a punishment frame work against children rights ~~abused~~ persons but this act ~~punishment~~ is not implementing in the country. Therefore, child labour is increasing day by day.

In the ~~worldwide~~ child labour is the major issue of developing world. ~~Poverty, unemployment, Political Polarization and bad governance, limited Job opportunities, less investment on education sector and rapid industrialization are the major causes behind child labouring.~~ Therefore, child labour impacted in the social status and ~~economic growth of Pakistan.~~ Further child labouring impacted in ^{inter-}national image building and increased demoralization in society as well as crime rate. However, ~~these issues can be eliminated through~~ high allocation of GDP on education sector, ~~enforces law enforcement agencies ⁱⁿ implementing~~ ^{Policies of} international organization. In conclusion, these issues can be solved by proper policies implementation.