"The Essay"

Pakistan's a T

Pakistan is, "the Islamic Republic Pakistan" officially; with great geographical location of south Asia, central Asia, and the middle east. Quaid e Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's vision for Pakistan (Muslim nation). According to

Quaid-e-Azam "We are now all Pakistanis - not Baluchis, Pathans, Sindhis, Bengalis, Punjabis and so on -"

But after some time of creation of Pakistan we had losted our great leader Quaid-e-Azam.

That, ~~was~~ time Pakistan was facing issues like economy, survival etc. There were different civil-military clashes which led to political instability of country. The constitutional amendments were made by political leaders to serve their own interests. There were border clashes and wars between Pakistan and India. The main reason of Pakistan and India clashes were about border, Kashmir issue and water issue which have been still under conflicts but no true resolution in this regards. Due to political instability and internal security issues Pakistan had ~~been~~ losted (Bengal) East Pakistan in 1971.

~~Introduction~~

If we look further, Pakistan had been experienced two parties systems in politics and still had to face rather than a true democracy on merit based elections and selection of a leader. The constitution of Pakistan was of 1979 was the effort of Zulfikar Ali Bhutto's government. The factors like corruption, money laundering, weak institutions, less funding for education sectors and police sectors etc such factors were the main cause of hindrance of progress of country and still are potent need of a good governance in country but unfortunately due to successional policy of democracy were had been weaken the country's growing norms. These governments have been changing during 2013-2024, that's there is great ratio of political instability and polarization in a country. The GDP value also has been decreased due to structural imbalances. Pakistan has been become a great victim of demographic pressures, poverty, health, human rights and climate changes. Since 2001 after war on terror Pakistan

It is unclear where the paragraph begins and end. No clear indication of introduction ending. No structure for anything.

has been lost the number of military officers, infrastructure and economy. Now, Pakistan is still facing such terrorism issues (e.g. TTP).

According to data GDP growth was 5.9% in 2018 before dropping due to structural imbalance. Due to Covid-19 there was also a tremendous loss in economy rate, but there was recovery in 2024.

In 2025 economy rate of Pakistan had showed growth, but also faces different challenges. There were also have been seen the constitutional amendments regarding defence, federal relations and army chiefs expansion. There are also emerging challenges in media would be seen like hybrid wars, digital transformation and also media is facing internal and external restrictions. Besides, all these challenges, Pakistan has also faced too much climate changes in 2025, which have given a future bad signs. Pakistan has also been facing water and flood challenges i.e. floods in Indus river and Indus water treaty suspension by India. Pakistan's governance has also been shown a balance diplomacy

GENERAL FEEDBACK FOR ESSAYS

Content (40%)

Your interpretation should be in depth, comprehensive and academic.

Always address the asked part. It should be evident in your outline, which should be self-explanatory in nature. Essays/Outlines that give related information without addressing the asked part do not qualify.

The whole essay should be relevant. Even if 1-2 arguments are irrelevant the essay will not pass.

Distribution of topic should be according to the demand of the topic statement i.e. if there is one scoring point it should be given more weight, if there are 2 or more scoring points all should be given equal weight.

All claims made in the essay must be substantiated. Out of 15-17 arguments at least 9-10 should be academically backed with proper references. The rest should be backed by either case studies or generally known information.

Evidence must be authentic and come from proper and authentic academic sources.

Newspapers do not qualify as an academic source. Illustrations and vague mentions of events do not qualify as academic evidence.

Essays that are lacking in evidence do not qualify.

LANGUAGE (25%)

Focus on enhancing your grammar as any essay with 4-5 grammatical mistakes does not pass.

Your essay must be in the tone and tense of the topic statements. Essays that fail to comply do not pass.

Your sentence structure should be simple, yet clear and diversified.

Vocabulary used should be simple, clear and concise. Expression should always be formal and academic.

You are never to write in 1st and 2nd person pronouns.

You must always use the given keywords and your topic for your thesis statements and main headings in your outline.

STRUCTURE (20%)

Your essay must follow the selected pattern and that structure should be maintained throughout.

INTRODUCTION: The introduction is the longest paragraph of the essay, at least 200 words. It should start with a hook, must give the glimpse of what's to come and must have a thesis statement. Besides hook, your introduction should not have any sort of information and reference. Avoid definitions in introduction.

BODY PARAGRAPHS: Approximately 150 words at most and all the body paragraphs must be consistent in length. Should follow the proper structure of an academic paragraph i.e. it must have a topic sentence, supporting point, evidence and concluding sentence. The topic sentence and concluding sentence must align with each other. There should be no new information in the concluding sentence. One paragraph represents one subheading in the outline and consists of one idea.

CONCLUSION: Must start with the concluding phrase. There should be no new information in the conclusion. It should recap the arguments. Conclusion does not have any examples and information. If you are ending it on a hopeful note, remember that solutions and hope are not the same.
