Title:- The Limits of Specialization

05/20

~~Modern problems need general expertise~~

In Today's world, experts' opinions have been given priority over common sense of common man on common issues. People often often approach experts for answers of the question simple in nature. Since the categorization of knowledge confused common people, they ask general questions to experts out of their field leaving experts blank. As a known fact experts of one field hardly have knowledge about other fields; however, modern problems are interlinked so it is needed that general expertise should be priorities over single field expertise.

The minister addressing the gathering said, "My fellow citizens we stand today at a crucial juncture in our nation's history. We must ask ourselves are we ready to face the challenges ahead or shall we succumb to despondency and inaction?"

Dr. Ahmed, the renowned economist, had warned us last year that unless immediate reforms are undertaken, the economy will collapse; however, his advice was not heeded. Now we find ourselves in precisely the predicament he had predicted; therefore, I urge you all to support the government's new economic policy which, though painful in the short term, will yield beneficial results in the long run. Let's not be content to repeat the mistakes of the past, let's move forward with determination and courage.
