

A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever

The lasting happiness lies in the things having beauty in them. People seek happiness and joy when they get the things composed of beauty. The beauty, either in the material things or the abstract ones, everyone has their own taste of enjoying the beauty. As the nature has a appealing factor in it and the people of sober nature find the joy in it. This joy is a long lasting phenomenon because the nature is a universal thing. This fact is collaborated in the theory of utilitarianism by John Stuart Mill. It implies that, there are two sovereign powers which control the men. One is pleasure and the other is pain. In every action, men ultimately find pleasure which lies in the beauty of himself. In addition to this theory, the findings of the survey conducted by the Fact Finding Co.
