

Sadia Zainab Batch-03-88. Online.

Paragraph writing on "A thing of a beauty is a joy forever."

A thing of a beauty is joy forever is a line from poem which was written by John Keats. It means that beautiful things give us happiness for a long period of time. Multiple beautiful things are present in this world.

The rivers, oceans, <sup>and</sup> sea attracts thousands of people towards themselves.

Beauty may be found in art, nature, kind actions, or even good memories.

The beauty of all beautiful things always remain in mind and thoughts of a person. Similarly, a peaceful music always gives pleasure and tranquility to listener. These happiness of all these things refresh in mind and remove all the sadness in sorrow. True beauty does not fade with time because it leaves a deep impression in mind and soul. Moreover, beauty is not only in physical appearance; it also exist in actions, character, and honesty.

Such beauty makes the world a better place to live in. Therefore, a beautiful things are always permanent source of joy and comfort for all humans being. Example, Hunza valley in Pakistan.

It has rivers, greenery that attracts tourists from all over the world.

On the other hand, Badshahi Mosque is the most famous historic building which was manufactured during the Mughal era. It is famous because of its architecture and peaceful atmosphere. Its beauty has been admired for centuries.

inter me