

Democracy in Pakistan: Hopes & Hurdles

1 Introduction: mention the thesis statement as well.....

2 Democracy in Pakistan

(i) Hopes to democracy in Pakistan:
 Economy would be better in country
 Political conflict between parties would be better.

Literacy rate will be increase.

Better export system

Better relationship with other countries.

People would trust their government and respect its decisions.

Rate of unemployment will decrease.

It helps in increasing technology. Positive changes in society.

(ii) Hurdles of democracy in Pakistan:
 Lackness of resources

Lack of rule of law

Corruption in political parties

Corruption in civil forces.

Poor governance

It is because of low literacy rate

Socioeconomic instability

Poor communication between parties.

Poor relationship with other countries

(iii) Recommendations

Political stability

- No corruption between parties.
- Increase literacy rate
- Increase communication between parties.
- Increase relationship with other countries.

4)

(iv) Conclusion:

you have not understood the topic and hence most of the arguments are irrelevant.....