16-March-26

English Comprehension Test-3

Name: Kanza Fayyaz Malik
Batch: 87
LMS-ID: 42693-Kanza fayyaz Malik-087

Q- Read the following Text carefully and answer the questions below:

1. What has been lamented in the text?

Ans. The writer explains the beauty of aesthetics and argues that education should teach us that how to appreciate the creativity and beauty of things which naturally lies in every human being, but some people are unaware of the fact that if they consistently focus on their aesthetics and discover the meaning of the creativity of things, they will also be same as those of considered special "saints or artists".

2. What is the difference between ordinary man and an artist?

Ans According to the passage, an ordinary man ignores the beauty and creativity of the things. He might be concerned about the cost or price of things he buy, but ignores to notice the aesthetics and beauty of creating those things the way you want.

But an artist, notices keenly and observe everything and appreciates the beauty lies in the world, he buys things for the sake of beauty and creativity; and tries to express it Through his work.

3. How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

A. ~~For the society to progress,~~ we must learn to appreciate the beauty of the things and everyone must at least try to develop the qualities of a saint or an artist by focusing on the ordinary things and recognize the aesthetic activity of the spirit, appreciate the beauty and creativity of those ordinary things. Then, we will enjoy everything as it will give us pleasure.

4. What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

A. The writer talks about the common man's point of view that a common man thinks that Beauty is an ornament to life, but it is not the case Beauty and Creativity are just part of lives and it is perceived only by those who know the meaning of appreciating the tiny details and patterns of everything.

5. Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

Ans. Yes, Art and Beauty influence the way how we think. It creates a sense of responsibility, care and creativity which gives pleasure and happiness.
I agree, because beauty and art make a person think more creatively and tying different patterns and Techniques to make and beautify the way they want. Therefore, Beauty is not just the decoration, but is an essential part of life.

12/20. Good