

History is replete with those successful people who began their lives under extreme difficult circumstances but later, they ~~were~~ became counted among world's progressive and famous personalities.

Success, honor and fame are never served to you on a platter. Wealth can be served to you but for that, one condition must be met; that your forefathers must have had ~~property~~ <sup>wealth</sup>

You can buy worldly ~~the~~ necessities through money
, but not happiness.

Sometimes, it take centuries to earn ~~respect~~, but only a moment is enough to earn disgrace or to be controversial.
