SUBJECTIVE PART — PART-II

Question.2: America is a melting pot of cultures and nationalities. What do you think of this statement in the recent wake of anti-immigrant sentiments?

Question.3: Briefly explain westward expansion. To what extent do you agree it was more of a trail of tears than a story of annexations, purchases, and concessions?

Question.4: "The Russian Federation is the most significant and direct threat to Allies' security and peace and stability in the Euro-Atlantic area", to what extent do you think this statement is true in the recent wake of the Russian invasion of Ukraine? Highlight the factors that can contribute to the further eastward expansion of NATO.

Question.5: The US constitution is one of the oldest written yet one of the most powerful constitutions in the world. Elaborate.

Question.6: "In the coming year, the United States and its allies will face an increasingly complex and interconnected global security environment marked by the growing specter of great power competition and conflict, while collective, transnational threats to all nations and actors compete for our attention and finite resources." Discuss in light of the renewed threat of nation-state aggression.

Question.7: Compare and analyze the Truman, Eisenhower, and Monroe Doctrines.

Question.8: Write notes on any of TWO of the following:

- a) Civil Rights Movement
- b) Philadelphia convention
- c) Alexander Hamilton's contribution to the economy of the newly formed USA
